

February 28, 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR:           THE PRESIDENT
FROM:                   HENRY A. KISSINGER
SUBJECT:               Draft Calls

The following is in answer to your question concerning how many men a month were being drafted four years ago. Draft calls in January 1969 were 26,800 and in February 1969, 33,700. The average monthly draft call in 1969 was 24,158 per month. In 1968, the average was 24,917 per month.
